Erhu Beginner to Advanced

Erhu began in the Tang Dynasty, called "Xiqin", and has a history of more than a thousand years. One of the main instruments of the Chinese Orchestra. It is a traditional Chinese stringed instrument.

Instructor:

Professor Donghua Feng graduated from the Wuhan Conservatory and served in the Zhengzhou University School of Music as a professor of erhu for decades. She holds memberships in the China Nationalities Orchestra Society, the National Higher Music Education Association and the China Nationalities Orchestra Society Grading committee of expert judges. She has repeatedly won the China Nationalities Orchestra Society outstanding instructor award. In 1996 won the National Higher Education in Vocal Music Society instrumental competition erhu solo prize. She is now an erhu teaching and performing professional artist. After immigrating to Canada she continues to engage in erhu performance and teaching activities. Since 2015 served as COFN erhu teacher.

Since 2015, she has been an erhu teacher at Canada One Family Network. Participated in the classical concerts of the The Age of Literati Culture Festival, and served as the erhu chief. She once served as the erhu solo in the East meet the West New Year's Concert.
